

Audition song for Summer Youth Project 2008 – Summer Holiday

Once you've downloaded this PDF file, make sure you also download the MP3 track that goes with it. This has the audition song on there for you to learn. You need to make sure arrive at the audition on 4th May 2008 with the song already learnt. (That includes having learnt the lyrics from memory!) The male and female part of the song is very obvious on the recording!

You MIGHT have to sing solo at some stage, but this will probably be at the re-call auditions later in the day. At the recall auditions you MIGHT also be taught a new song, but don't panic – everyone's in the same boat! Just come along and enjoy yourself!

"The Young Ones"

MALE:

Once in ev'ry lifetime,
Comes a song like this.
Oh, I need you and you need me,
Oh my darling can't you see?
The young ones,
Darling, we're the young ones.
And the young ones,
Shouldn't be afraid
To live, love, while the flame has sprung,
'Cause we may not be the young ones very long.

FEMALE:

Tomorrow,
Why wait till tomorrow?
'Cause tomorrow,
Sometimes never comes.
So love me, there's a song to be sung,
And the best time is to sing it while we're young.
